

Sec. 2-105. - Examination of public records.

The custodian of public records must authorize any examination of public records other than during regular office or working hours. If the examination is made after regular office or working hours, the employee designated to represent the custodian during such examination shall be entitled to overtime compensation. The custodian of public records must receive, in advance, the overtime pay required to have an employee present from the person examining such records during other than regular office or working hours.

(Ord. No. 4270, § 1, 12-21-88)

Sec. 2-106. - Copies of public records.

Copies of public records shall be furnished to a person so requesting at a fee of twenty-five cents ($0.25) per page copies, except as otherwise provided. Copies of public records may be furnished without charge or at a reduced charge to indigent citizens of this state.
