EXHIBIT A

The German Coast Farmers Market (GCFM) agrees to provide the following:

East & West Bank Farmers Market Venues

GCFM will operate and manage an East Bank Farmers' Market and a West Bank Farmers Market for the purpose of providing local farmers and value-added vendors a weekly venue to sell the produce.

Seedling Program & Market Promotional Items

GCFM will continue to promote the seedling Program and Industry Support Program as well as market promotional items a revenue source for operating expenses of the market.

Louisiana Seniors Farmers Market Nutrition Program

GCFM will participate in the program , administered by the Louisiana Department of Agriculture & Forestry (LDAF). GCFM will encourage eligible vendors to become certified. Council on Aging forwards eligible participant listing to LDAF. Eligible participants will receive $16 in coupons to buy fresh fruits, vegetables and cut herbs from a certified vendor.

Resident Business & Entrepreneurship Program

GCFM will work to increase vendor selling opportunities by developing and encouraging relationships with the Edible Enterprise Food Incubator Program and its tenants, local restaurants, retail outlets and the St. Charles Parish School System. The GCFM will offer technical assistance to vendors and entrepreneurs.

Website-Internet Service

GCFM will facilitate maintenance of a website to assist market vendors in advertising and promoting their products. GCFM will assist all market vendors by emailing a newsletter to market patrons.

Tourism

GCFM will promote local tourism attractions and work with agencies to increase visitor attendance.

Market Lagniappe

GCFM will regularly sponsor and offer market programs aiming to educate and entertain patrons. Lagniappe examples may include but are not limited to food demonstrations, live music, gardening seminars, and health fitness educational opportunities.

Grants, Donations, In-Kind Services

GCFM will proactively pursue grant opportunities and financial & in-kind donations to assist with defraying operating expenses.

Heritage Education Initiative

GCFM will educate market visitors on the history of the German Coast, by displaying interpretive panels/signboards, which will follow the stories of German Settlers. These panels will serve to educate visitors on the history of the immigration and settlement of the Coast.

St. Charles Parish Council Presentation

GCFM appeared at a St. Charles Parish Council Meeting in January 10, 2022 and presented a summary report of their 2021 operations and answered questions pertaining to GCFM activities.
