

Ord.
2014-0339

INTRODUCED BY: V.J. ST. PIERRE, JR, PARISH PRESIDENT

ORDINANCE NO. 14-10-18

An ordinance to rescind Ordinance No. 92-10-11, the current Sexual Harassment Policy, and adopt a revised Sexual Harassment Policy for the Parish of St. Charles.

THE ST. CHARLES PARISH COUNCIL HEREBY ORDAINS:

SECTION I. Policy

It is a policy of St. Charles Parish that all employees have a right to work in an environment free from sexual harassment.

- (a) Specifically, this policy provides that no supervisor shall threaten or insinuate, either explicitly or implicitly, that an employee's refusal to submit to sexual advances will adversely affect, or that the submission to or rejection of advances will in any way influence, any personnel decision regarding that employee's employment, assigned duties, shifts, or any other condition of employment or career development.
- (b) Other sexually harassing conduct in the work place, whether physical or verbal, committed by supervisory or nonsupervisory personnel, is also prohibited. This includes repeated, offensive sexual flirtations, advances or propositions, verbal abuse of a sexual nature, graphic verbal commentaries about an individual's body, sexually degrading words used to describe an individual, or the display in the workplace of sexually suggestive objects or pictures.
- (c) If an employee accuses another employee of sexual harassment and the action is found to have occurred, no retaliation will be taken against the accusing party by the offender or any other employee of the Parish. If an employee is a victim of sexual harassment, the employee shall present the complaint to the employee's immediate supervisor. If, in the event the complaint involves the immediate supervisor, the employee shall present the complaint directly to the department director. If, in the event the complaint involves this individual, the employee shall present the complaint directly to the Personnel Officer. All complaints of sexual harassment will be dealt with immediately by the individual initially notified. If the allegations are sufficient, an investigation of the complaint will take place. All complaints of this nature should be kept as confidential as possible.
- (d) This policy forbids discrimination against complaining individual with respect to compensation and other terms, conditions or privileges of employment.

SECTION II. Sexual Harassment is Prohibited.

The sexual harassment of any employee of the Parish by any other employee or non-employee is prohibited. The Parish will not tolerate the sexual harassment of any of its employees, and will take immediate, positive steps to stop it when it occurs.

SECTION III. Definitions

- (a) Sexual Harassment is behavior with a sexual content or overtone that is unwelcome and personally offensive. Sexual harassment can consist of sexually-oriented "kidding" or jokes; physical contact such as kissing, patting, pinching or purposely rubbing up against another person's body; demands or requests for sexual favors tied to promises of better treatment or threats concerning employment; discriminating against an employee for refusing to "give in" to demands or requests for sexual favors; or rewarding or granting favors to one who submits to demands or requests for sexual favors; or displaying sexually explicit or pornographic material, no matter how it is displayed.
- (b) Sexual harassment includes conduct directed by males towards females, conduct directed by males towards males, conduct directed by females towards males, and conduct directed by females towards females.
- (c) Harassment is any employee's, non-employee's or elected official's behavior, or any working environment condition that interferes with one's job performance, which is intimidating, hostile or offensive. Harassment, either verbal or physical, which could affect employment, continued employment, salary, appraisal, advancement or other employment decisions. These kinds of actions will not be tolerated. Similarly, remarks or actions directed at an individual which intimidate or create an offensive work environment for that individual or interfere with his/her ability to perform are also unacceptable. In addition, remarks or actions which constitute sexual harassment are unacceptable.

SECTION IV. Application of Sexual Harassment Policy

- (a) This sexual harassment policy adopted by the Parish applies to all officers and employees of the Parish, including but not limited to, elected officials, full and part-time, and permanent and temporary classified and unclassified employees of the Parish.
- (b) This policy will be distributed to all officials and employees of the Parish. Every official and employee will be required to acknowledge in writing his or her receipt and understanding of this policy. A copy of this acknowledgment shall be kept on permanent file in the Parish. Department heads and supervisors shall also be responsible for ensuring that all employees under their direction are familiar with this policy.

SECTION V. Making Sexual Harassment Complaints

- (a) Any employee who feels he or she is being subjected to sexual harassment should immediately contact one of the persons below. Complaints may be made orally or in writing to:
 - (1) The employee's immediate supervisor.
 - (2) The employee's department head.
 - (3) The Parish Personnel Officer.
 - (4) The Parish President.
- (b) Employees have the right to circumvent the employee chain of command in selecting which person to whom to make a complaint concerning sexual harassment.
- (c) Regardless of the specific person to which an employee makes a complaint of sexual harassment, the employee should be prepared to provide the following information:
 - (1) The employees or official's name, department, and position title.
 - (2) The name of the person or persons committing the sexual harassment, including their title(s), if known.
 - (3) The specific nature of the sexual harassment, how long it has gone on, and any employment action (demotion, failure to promote, dismissal, refusal to hire, transfer, etc.) taken against the employee as a result of the harassment, or any other threats made against the employee as a result of the harassment.
 - (4) All witnesses to the harassment.
 - (5) Whether such harassment has been previously reported, and if so, when and to whom.

SECTION VI. Reporting an Investigation of Sexual Harassment Complaints Against Classified, Unclassified and Appointed Employees or Elected Officials.

- (a) Complaints against classified, unclassified and appointed employees. The Parish Personnel Officer and his or her authorized representative are designated by the Parish to be the investigator of employee complaints of sexual harassment. In the event the sexual harassment complaint is against the Parish Personnel Officer, the investigator shall be appointed by the Parish President and approved by the Civil Service Board.
 - (1) When an allegation of sexual harassment is made by any employee, the person to whom the complaint is made shall immediately prepare a report of the complaint according to the preceding section and submit it to the Personnel Officer, or in the event the sexual harassment complaint is against the Personnel Officer, to the Parish President and the Civil Service Board.
 - (2) The Personnel Officer or his or her authorized investigator shall make and keep a written record of the investigation, including notes of verbal responses made to the investigator by the person complaining of sexual harassment, witnesses interviewed during the investigation, the person against whom the complaint of sexual harassment was made, and any other person contacted by the investigator in connection with the investigation. The notes shall be made at the time the verbal interview is in progress.
 - (3) When the investigator receives a complaint of sexual harassment, he or she shall immediately:
 - a. Obtain a written statement from the person complaining of sexual harassment which includes a comprehensive report of the nature of the sexual harassment complained of, the times, dates, and places where the sexual harassment is alleged to have occurred; and the investigator shall verbally question the person complaining of sexual harassment about any information in the written statement which is not clear or needs to be expanded upon.

- b. Obtain written statements from witnesses which include comprehensive reports of the nature of the conduct witnessed, the times, dates and places where the conduct is alleged to have occurred, the conduct of the person complaining of sexual harassment towards the person against whom the complaint of sexual harassment was made, and the conduct of the person against whom the complaint of sexual harassment was made against the person making the complaint. The investigator shall verbally question witnesses about any information in their written statements which is not clear or needs to be expanded upon.
 - c. Obtain a written statement from the person against whom the complaint of sexual harassment has been made. The investigator shall verbally question the person against whom the complaint of sexual harassment has been made about any information in the written statement which is not clear or needs to be expanded upon.
 - d. Prepare a report of the investigation, which includes the written statement of the person complaining of sexual harassment, the written statements of witnesses, the written statement of the person against whom the complaint of sexual harassment was made, and the investigator's notes connected to the investigation, and recommendations based on the evidence.
- (b) Complaints against an elected official.
- (1) Complaints of sexual harassment against elected officials shall be investigated by the Personnel Officer or his or her authorized representative.
 - (2) The investigator shall investigate the complaint against an elected official in the same manner as is outlined in this policy for the investigation of complaints against employees.

SECTION VII. Action on Complaints of Sexual Harassment

- (a) Complaints against an employee.
- (1) Upon receipt of a report of the investigation of a complaint of sexual harassment against an employee, the Director or supervisor of the department involved, provided not the subject of the complaint, shall immediately review the report. If the Director or supervisor of the department from which a sexual harassment complaint is made determines that the report is not complete in some respect, he or she may question the person complaining of sexual harassment, the person against whom the complaint of sexual harassment has been made, witnesses to the conduct in question or any other person who may have knowledge about the conduct in question. The Director or supervisor of the department from which a sexual harassment claim is made shall also keep written records of his or her investigation in the same manner prescribed for the investigator. However, if the Director or supervisor of the department from which a sexual harassment claim is made feels that the investigation report is adequate, he or she may make a recommendation based on the report, as to the appropriate action, if any, to be taken.
 - (2) Based upon the report, and his or her own investigation, where one is made, the Director or supervisor of the department involved, provided not the subject of the complaint, shall, within a reasonable time, make a recommendation as to the action, if any, to be taken against the person against whom a complaint of sexual harassment has been made. In making that recommendation, the Director or supervisor of the department involved shall look at the record as a whole and the totality of the circumstances, including the nature of the conduct in question, the context in which the conduct, if any, occurred, and the conduct of the person complaining of sexual harassment. The recommendation as to what action, if any, to be taken will be made on a case-by-case basis.
 - (3) If the Director or supervisor of the department involved, provided not the subject of the complaint, determines that the complaint of sexual harassment is supported; he or she shall recommend immediate and appropriate disciplinary action against the employee against whom the complaint of sexual harassment was made.
 - (4) The disciplinary action recommended shall be consistent with the nature and severity of the offense, the rank of the employee, and any other factors that the Director or supervisor of the department involved believes relates to fair and efficient administration of the Parish, including, but not limited to, the effect of the offense on employee morale and public perception of the offense, and the light in which it casts the Parish. Disciplinary action may include demotion, suspension, dismissal, warning or reprimand. A determination of the level of disciplinary action shall also be made on a case-by-case basis.

- (5) A written record of disciplinary action taken shall be kept, including verbal reprimands. An employee the subject of a complaint of sexual harassment shall be warned not to retaliate in any way against the person making the complaint of sexual harassment, witnesses or any other person connected with the investigation of the complaint of sexual harassment.
- (6) In cases where the complaint of sexual harassment is against a non-employee, the Director or supervisor of the department involved shall recommend whatever lawful action against the non-employee as is necessary to bring the sexual harassment to an end.

(b) Complaints against an elected official

Upon completion of an investigation the Personnel Officer or his or her authorized representative shall submit the report of the investigation to the Parish President or the Civil Service Board should the complaint be against the Parish President.

SECTION VIII. Duty of Employees

- (a) Employees are obligated to report instances of sexual harassment and to cooperate in every investigation of sexual harassment. This obligation includes but is not limited to, coming forward with evidence, both favorable and unfavorable, to a person accused of sexual harassment, fully and truthfully making a written report or verbally answering questions when required to do so by an investigator during the course of an investigation of sexual harassment, and to refrain from making false or bad faith accusations of sexual harassment.
- (b) Disciplinary action may be taken against any employee who fails to report instances of sexual harassment, or who fails or refuses to cooperate in the investigation of a complaint of sexual harassment, or who files a false or bad faith complaint of sexual harassment.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED, THAT WE, THE MEMBERS OF THE ST. CHARLES PARISH COUNCIL, DO HEREBY rescind Ordinance No. 92-10-11 and adopt a revised Sexual Harassment/Harassment Policy of the Parish of St. Charles.
